

The Tietgen Award – for nominators

Applications for the Tietgen Award must include a nomination. A nominator should be the applicant's rector, dean of studies, tutor, head of department, senior manager, or similar.

The recipient of the award will be selected during the month of November, whereupon the nominator will be duly notified. If your nominated candidate is selected to receive the award, there will be a presentation ceremony at a festive event at the Old Stock Exchange, Copenhagen, which you and the candidate will be invited to attend.

As nominator, we ask you to motivate the nomination of your candidate by responding to the questions below.

Contact details of nominator (name, title, university, e-mail, phone number)

Contact details of candidate (name, title, university)

Please state your reasons for nominating the candidate for the Tietgen Award

Please describe the candidate's most significant contribution to research

Please describe the significance of the candidate's research for Danish society and the business community

Nominator's signature

Date